Foreward

In these turbulent days when thousands of American boys are dying in an undeclared war, when innocent civilians are killed and their properties destroyed by "peaceful" demonstrators, when a self-proclaimed "democratic-liberal" regime like the Russian Communists hold millions of people in slave-labor camps, it's time that we turn to prayer and ask the Almighty to show mankind a guiding light.

It is appropriate to begin this Report by paying homage to a great spiritual leader of our times and to quote some of his words.

(The following is an excerpt from an article by Bill Bird, Staff Writer for the "Sunday Ledger")

FOOTHILL SPIRITUAL LEADER LEARNED OF COMMUNIST TYRANNY FIRST HAND. The cruel, merciless grind of the totalitarian heel is a form of treachery familiar to Tujunga's Rabbi Juda Glasner, spiritual leader of Congregation Mishkan Yicheskel.

He experienced it first hand in a Nazi detention camp in Czechoslovakia, from which he managed to gain his freedom before the end of World War II, in 1944.

Later he observed the demoralizing subjugation by the communist regime of former victims of Nazi oppression. This was in Bucharest in 1944 and 1945.

Rabbi Glasner recalled that during this period refugees liberated by the Russians after years of Nazi oppression were imprisoned after revealing their class identity; those of the professional or business class were deported to Siberia under the most cruel conditions.

Before the communist take-over of Rumania, he said some of the young people who had joined the communist party became completely alienated from parents and family. Some parents, he added, were afraid to discuss anything in the presence of their own children.

Concerning these frightful and turbulent years in communist dominated countries of Europe, Rabbi Glasner said: "Only people who possessed faith were able to survive."

Concerned about the moral degradation observed throughout the world, the Rabbi stresses the need for the preservation of spiritual values and reliance on the strengthening influence of religious faith. He stated: "Communism has become an idol of thought. There are men who are moved to worship it. They are ready to accept this idol of thought which communism represents since they have no other faith."

(The following is an article written by Rabbi Juda Glasner in the "Lakewood".)

The beneficial influence of faith has long ago been recognized by the great prophet Isaiah who said, "And they who hope in the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up their wings as eagles. They shall run and not be weary..."

In our age of tremendous advance in the realm of scientific discovery and in this age of cataclysmic change, the words of Isaiah become more timely. His admonition of "verily if ye have no faith ye will not endure..." should be valued and better understood than ever before.

The need of faith in G-d, the need of spiritual value and indestructible moral certainties - of ethics derived from religion have become essential to the preservation of humanity.

For this reason extraordinary efforts are being made in our country to strengthen religion. We see and hear there efforts everyday on television, in newspapers, on posters, in magazines. We hear them on the radio. They urge us "Light your life with faith. Come to worship." These efforts are a result of the concern of many thoughtful citizens that our beloved nation, which had its very origin in religion, should not drift away from its firm foundation of faith and should not lose a part of its invaluable heritage. For faith is what give weak humanity its strength and lost human beings their direction. It is faith which relates him to the universe in which he lives and to the abiding purpose behind that universe.

There never yet has been a society or a generation which relinquished its faith in G-d without substituting a faith in something less than G-d. The real question isn't, Shall we believe, but rather in what will man believe. The answer to this question is that man, by his very nature, must have faith in something. Deprive him of G-d and he builds himself a Golden Calf.

Dostoevsky said, "It is impossible to be a man and not to bow to something." Consequently according to this theory, if we reject G-d, then we bow down to an idol fashioned of wood, gold, or Thought.

Communism has become an idol of thought. There are men who are moved to worship it. They are ready to accept this idol of thought which Communism represents since they have no other faith. It therefore is the sacred duty of every loyal citizen to strengthen and brighten the flickering lights of faith.

Lodge Activities

It is with great pride that we introduce to you, via an article which appeared in the San Francisco State College paper, our newest lodge, San Francisco State College, X53 and its chairman, Lawrence Beliz.

NEW VOICE HEARD

"A new student political group is springing up on campus and its color is conservative. Its name is the Jewish Society of Americanists, Lodge No. 53, a 'patriotic, anti-Communist organization.'

3.
"The bird is a rare one for SF State and might not be expected to survive in an environment dominated by liberal and radical-left breeds.

"But organizer Lawrence Beliz, who also makes up the entire on-campus membership to date, is confident that he will gather enough support to carve a niche for 'the other voice.'

"Beliz, a broadcasting major, says he will have an information table set up at next week's Activities Fair. The JSA is a national organization founded in April 1966 with regional offices in California and the mid-west." ***

Since the Lodge's birth date, October 9, our "Boy of the Year" has been sitting behind the JSA table, surrounded by informative literature (which he hands out by the hundreds!) and posters displaying articles like the following:

HERITAGE; Southwest Jewish Press

Vol. 5728 Thursday, Oct. 26, 1967 No. 5

"THEY CRIED 'CEASE FIRE!' - DELIVERING DEATH

"The bloodthirsty stance of the Soviet regime has never been stripped so shockingly bare than in aftermath of the murderous assault upon an Israeli patrol vessel in international waters off the Sinai peninsula - where it had every right and duty to be.

"The hands that launched the four terror missiles on their course of death may have been the hands of Egypt - but the murder was fashioned in Moscow.

"How the Russian bear cried 'cease fire!' when Israeli forces destroyed four Arab armies.

"How they roared 'Aggression!' in the council of nations at the Israeli army that was forced to take to the fireline in order to break through a Soviet-acquiesced noose around the throat of the tiny Jewish state.

"Israel halted her counterassault and waited for the humanity of peace.

"But Russia, that great dialectic state, refused to prod her lackeys into peace, but instead delivered hundreds of tanks, planes and missiles of the most sophisticated kind to the United Arab Republic...while the western world denied the Israeli armed forces the hardware to replenish vital equipment lost in the Six Day War.

"How silent are the revolutionaries of the working classes in the Kremlin these days.

"Silent, while their diplomats lie down with feudal dogs.

"Senator Tom Kuchel laid it on the line when he warned the United States this week that the present State Department diplomacy of playing cat and mouse with the destinies of Israel is deplorable.

"The people of the United States believe overwhelmingly that they have a direct commitment to the safety, integrity and prosperity of the people of Israel", declared the very astute and independent-minded senator.

We urge that America make it clear: if there must be an arms race involving sophisticated weaponry of the type used against the destroyer Elath, that the West make available similar missiles to Israel as a counter-measure.

"Let the Kremlin know they'll not get away with it!"

"While Neo-Nazis Gain... NEW SOVIET HATE BLAST AT JEWRY

"New York (Special) - Trofim Kichko, Soviet author whose notorious anti-Semitic book "Judaism Without Embellishment" was exposed several years ago by Morris B. Abram, president of the American Jewish Committee, is back in print - and again preaching anti-Semitism although this time he clothes it in anti-Zionism.

"At the same time, it was noted that the success which the neo-Nazi National Democratic Party (NPD) scored in early October in the elections in Bremen, when it won 8 seats in the Landtag (provincial Parliament), is causing serious concern among the major parties joined in the ruling West German coalition.

"Zachariah Shuster, AJCommittee European director, said: "Responsible analysts within the German government admit that results of the Bremen elections demonstrate that in spite of the internal leadership clashes and splits within the NPD, the party has not lost its strength among the voters."

"With regard to the Soviet's anti-Semitic propaganda blast, the American Jewish Committee's Foreign Affairs Department reported that an article by Kichko titled "Zionism - A Tool of Imperialism" (Sionizm - orude imperializma) appeared in the Soviet newspaper "Komso-moloskoye znanya", the official publication of the Young Communist League of the Ukraine, on October 4, 1967.

"Kichko's earlier hate book had the imprint of official sources in the Ukraine.

"Kichko's thesis in his new article is that there is 'an unbreakable bond between Zionism and the reactionary forces of contemporary imperialism.' He stresses that the main content of Zionism is 'militant anti-Communism,' then adds:

"It is precisely the anti-Communism of the international Zionist corporation of businessmen - some of them specializing in politics and finance, others in religion and commerce - that has helped Jewish bourgeois nationalism to grow stronger and to become a tool of the policies and strategy of contemporary imperialism."

"Zionism, he said, has played what he calls 'a special role' in 'imperialist intrigues in the Middle East."

"To support this notion, he charged that American, British, French, and German bankers consider Palestine 'a good launching pad' for the creation of bases 'in their struggle against the forces of progress' - meaning the Soviet Union and its allies.

"With respect to the Neo-Nazi developments in West Germany, Mr. Shuster declared that NPD has become the major outlet for all elements that, for one reason or another, are opposed to the present coalition government headed by Chancellor Kurt-Georg Kiesinger, of the Christian Democratic Union, and Vice-Chancellor Willy Brandt, of the Socialist Party.

"Among reasons given for the declining prestige of the coalition parties are these:

"Lack of results in the approaches made to Communist countries..

"Could Have Saved Many, Book Says

F.D.R. KNEW OF GERMAN MASSACRES"

"New York (AP) - The administration of President Franklin D. Roosevelt knew Germany was carrying out a planned massacre of Jews but obstructed, thwarted and delayed actions that could have saved thousands of victims of Nazi persecution in the 1940's, a new book charges.

"There is no doubt from evidence at hand that additional thousands of refugees could have been saved," says Arthur D. Morse in his book, "While Six Million Died: A Chronicle of American Apathy," scheduled for publication in February.

"Morse is a former Columbia Broadcasting System executive, now in Germany as director of the International Broadcasting Institute.

His spokesman, Morse was granted access to the State Department's restricted files and government archives in London, Geneva and Stockholm, the New York Times reported.

"Morse says that there was an 'almost coordinated series of in-actions' based on Roosevelt's silence, stringent enforcement of immigration laws by the State Department and the reluctance of Congress to relax immigration policies.

"He charged it took the Division of European Affairs five months to act on information that Hitler had ordered the extermination of all Jews in Europe.

"Morse says that Gerhart Riegner, the World Jewish Congress representative in Switzerland - and the man who had alerted Washington to the massacre of 700,000 Jews in Poland - went to the U. S. consulate in Geneva Aug. 1, 1942, with his new information.

"In the State Department it was met with universal disbelief and suppressed, Mores writes.

"On Aug. 28, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise received the information through the British Foreign Office, and went to see Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles, who had initialed the decision to suppress Riegner's cable. Welles urged Wise to refrain from a public announcement of the extermination order, and Wise agreed.

"Then in November, Welles called in Wise and confirmed the report.

"Morse quoted a memorandum from Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr. to Roosevelt on Jan. 16, 1944 criticizing the State Department for having delayed for five months - and thus probably thwarting - a plan to save thousands of Jews from France and Romania."

About the J. S. A.

Freedom Magazine's Sept.-Oct. issue headlines its editorial: WELCOME, JSA. Among many complimentary statements the article concludes with the following:

"Are we surprised at the emergence of a 'conservative' Jewish organization? Not in the least. The Jew has always manifested an unusually high IQ; and has led the way throughout the Nation's history in business and the professions. Surely there have been stumbling blocks in the way of his exodus from Liberalism; the most serious one being the insidious lie associating Conservatism with Naziism via the 'right-wing' hoax. But the latent intelligence of the Jew makes it impossible for him to forever 'buy' the obviously false nostrums of the liberal-left.

"We happily anticipate some outstanding contributions to the cause of Freedom by the Jewish Society of Americanists, and concur with the slogan printed on the masthead of their Newsletter: 'Proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof. - Lev. 25:10'"

We thank Mr. W. E. Stone and the Liberty Amendment Committee for their recognition and "Welcome, J.S.A."

Exodus

I wish to begin this report by expressing my deepest appreciation to the many, many members who have been responding to my plea, contributing both financially and their time and efforts.

On the first birthday of the WCJSA, our membership has quintupled.

We can boast of 8 Lodges, with 2 in the process of formation.

We have a regular monthly publication, the West Coast Report, which is gradually becoming the voice of our members. (Please keep sending me your letters, poems, clippings, etc. And don't forget, your comments and constructive criticisms are always desired!)

We have buttons, stickers, and flyers available. These carry messages; we need you to display and distribute them! (Check with your Lodge Chairman for samples and costs.)

Finally, we are about to launch our biggest undertaking: a petition drive. The two major problems we, as American Jews, must be concerned with are: 1. The treatment of the millions of Jews in the Soviet Union; and 2. United States policy with respect to Israel. Our resolutions committee is in the process of drafting the petition, copies of which will be mailed to you soon. It is of utmost importance that each member gets at least 100 signatures.

This being an election year, political candidates are greatly concerned with public opinion. Our views and voice must be heard! Each signature on the petition multiplies the volume of our voice. Return the completed forms to our WC office. We will keep you informed of the effects of this drive.

From Our Members

Outlook - 1968

As we are already well into the election year of 1968, this would seem to be a good time to take a hard and realistic look at the upcoming election and what significance it should have to us as members of the JSA. Don't expect me, in the following lines, to give you any type of sneak preview of the Presidential contest or to present any analysis of the various candidates or "non-candidates". (In true Orwellian fashion, the two terms have come to mean exactly the same thing.) Nor should you expect any advice on how to vote or what persons or parties to support. This is entirely up to the individual member. What I will try to present is an analysis of the opportunities and pitfalls which present themselves to the informed and patriotic American every four years at election time.

In 1964, many good Americans worked very hard for the election of Senator Goldwater to the Presidency. However, despite their enormous sacrifices, the power of the establishment - particularly in its control of the communications media - was more than sufficient to overwhelm their efforts and elect the Johnson clique to power by a gigantic majority. Whereupon, those Americans who had worked so hard and desperately in the Goldwater campaign, concluded that all was lost and many sunk into a defeatist lethargy from which some are beginning to emerge only now. Now the fact that all was not lost (at least not yet) was amply demonstrated by the upswing in conservative and patriotic sentiment in the elections of 1966 and 1967 - an upswing made possible by the tremendous job of education in the ideas and principles of Americanism which was accomplished during the 1964 campaign. The ideas planted in the minds of millions of Americans at that time were driven home by the harsh reality of Johnsonian "liberalism", the Vietnam War, and government financed civil insurrection. They resulted in the Conservative electoral victories of 1966 and 1967. What was lost, however, by the defeat of Goldwater and the defeatism of his supporters was a great deal of time - time that the left has used to enormous advantage.

It is well to remember in this connection that the Communists don't win fair and honest elections, nor has this ever bothered them or slowed them down. For the Communists and other totalitarian socialists (e.g. Hitler and company) the appearance of spontaneous and overwhelming popular support is important. Its purpose is to demoralize both internal and external opposition and to gratify the ego of the tyrants. But the appearance is all that is important. Any tyrant realizes that actually maintaining a genuine popular support over a long period of time is all but impossible, since man - in spite of his many faults and imperfections - aspires to freedom and to the source of freedom, his Divine Creator, and no tyrant can tolerate such aspirations, for they mean the beginning of the end for tyranny. To compensate for the lack of a genuine, heart-felt popular support, totalitarians of all varieties employ deception and both physical and psychological terrorism. The influence of the Communists and of the left in general is felt in this country particularly through the educational system and the mass communications media. It is the United States' "liberalized" educational system which produces the voters - intentionally misinformed and misguided by their leftist, socialist teachers. It is the mass communications media which presents the candidates to the voters and determines whether a candidate's image will be favorable (as it will be if he promotes socialistic programs) or whether the image will be unfavorable (as it will be so frequently if the candidate is a patriotic American.)

From this it can be easily seen that the Conservative or patriotic campaign worker is playing the election game against a stacked deck. This does not mean that he should not play the game at all, but it does mean that he should make a more realistic estimate of what he hopes to get out of the game, lest by setting his hopes too high, he suffers a crushing disappointment when his candidate is defeated. What then, should we expect to get out of an election campaign?

The most important thing we can hope to accomplish in an election campaign is to reach more people and educate them in basic American and patriotic principles. During an election year, people in general will think and talk more about politics than at any other time. They will expect to be approached on behalf of various candidates or at least will not be surprised when they are approached. The patriot who has a candidate of his own persuasion is in a fortunate position at this time, since he has the perfect opportunity to work simultaneously for the election of his candidate and for the education of his fellow Americans. Thus, even if his candidate is defeated, the effort put forth has not been wasted since many Americans will have been informed of dangerous trends, concerning which they were perhaps previously unaware. It is probably of secondary importance that they believe immediately all the information that our patriotic worker gives them. The chances are that they will believe eventually, when the evidence of events confirms what they have been told. We can only hope and pray to God that eventually will not be too late. It is perhaps well to mention at this point that a conservative campaign worker need not be limited in his educational efforts by the campaign literature of his candidate's party. Although in theory this is the only literature he should use, in actual practice it is impossible for the party hierarchy to prevent him using outside literature. During the campaign in 1964, the three most potent pieces of literature used were the books None Dare Call It Treason, A Texan Looks at Lyndon, and A Choice, Not an Echo - none of which were official campaign literature.

But what of the patriotic American who does not have any candidate whom he honestly feels he can support? Should he sit out the election campaign in disgusted silence? By no means! Remember what has been said previously about people expecting to be approached during an election campaign. A member of the JSA, for example, standing on a street handing out some of our flyers to passers-by will undoubtedly be mistaken in a few more months for a campaign worker. The passer-by will read the flyer expecting to see some candidate praised or denounced. Expecting to see partisan political positions he will perhaps be surprised and puzzled to find only an explanation of some basic JSA principle or an analysis of a current issue from the standpoint of what is best for America, rather than what is best for a particular candidate or party. He will perhaps be pleasantly surprised at this departure from partisanship and from the lies and misrepresentation which accompany partisanship. At the very least he will be a better informed American.

These then are the opportunities which present themselves in this election year. Now we wish to say just a few words about the pitfalls. We have already dealt indirectly with the danger of expecting too much too soon - of saying "All is lost if we don't win this one." Look at it this way. If our fight for freedom depended in any way on our winning elections, we would have lost a long time ago. Losing one more would only hurt us if we do not use to full advantage the opportunities presented by the campaign. Aside from the pitfall of defeatism, however, there is another of perhaps equal importance. This is the tendency of many conservatives to choose a candidate, identify him completely with God, country, and liberty, and then take on all comers - including any fellow patriots who might not see this particular candidate in exactly the same light. This unfortunate tendency can sometimes be carried to really ridiculous lengths - as when a conservative might try to prove that a candidate supported by other conservatives is really a leftist sympathizer. Naturally no one should object to the truth being brought out about any political figure - no matter how distasteful that truth may be. But when one candidate is called a "sleeper" or a phony conservative merely to promote the interests of a rival candidate, the situation has already gone too far. This kind of name calling leads only to a smug "more patriotic than thou" feeling which lends itself to disharmony and bitterness among Conservatives. Unfortunately, this tendency is already appearing among some of the supporters of both Governor Reagan and Governor Wallace. It must be stopped immediately. We cannot afford fratricidal strife which gives comfort only to our enemies.

To summarize, we hope that all our members will use the election campaign of 1964 to the best advantage to promote the principles of the JSA throughout the country and to awaken in all Americans a deeper devotion to God and country and a keener awareness of the dangers to our liberty posed by the Communists and their allies. If we, with the help of God, take care of these matters, the elections will take care of themselves.

K.H.

Anti-Vietnam, Anti-Jewish Coalition Gains the Ballot in California
A Special Report on the Peace and Freedom Party

Many Californians were surprised to learn during the last week of December, 1967 that a new political party, calling itself the Peace and Freedom Party, had qualified for the ballot in the Golden State by registering more than 67,000 voters - following hard on the heels of a similar success by George Wallace's American Independent Party. The Peace and Freedom Party (hereinafter referred to as PFP) advocates two primary positions - "immediate and unilateral withdrawal of United States forces from Vietnam" and "support for the Black Revolution". The former of these positions is pretty unambiguous and can be judged on its merits. The latter requires somewhat closer examination.

Your correspondent was present at a meeting held by PFP in September 1967 shortly after the New Politics Convention in Chicago, at which PFP was represented. The main speaker at the September meeting was Ayuko Babu, New Politics National Committee member, a member of the "Black Caucus", and head of the Black Panther Party in Los Angeles. Babu, facing a rather servile audience, patiently outlined the position of the Black Caucus on Israel and Zionism, a position which had been adopted by the entire New Politics Convention. Zionism, he explained, was a tool of U.S. imperialism and if Jews in the United States wished to escape rising anti-Jewish feelings among black people, they must cease supporting and indeed must condemn Israel. They must further disassociate themselves from Jewish businessmen who are "exploiting" black people in the ghetto. In bored and condescending tones, Babu informed his audience (mostly members of the PFP) that they must accept the leadership of militant blacks if they wished to accomplish anything for the revolution. Babu's statements led to some disagreement, but to a greater amount of breast-beating and servile fawning. One Negro, in particular, apologized to the audience in general and to Babu for being merely a liberal instead of a revolutionary, stating that he would not "kill a cop every day like I know I should." The spectacle was disgusting, but would be of little interest if that had been the end of it.

But that was not the end of it. Around mid-December, PFP - still far from gaining the ballot and increasingly desperate about its inability to gain many registrants from the "ghetto" - announced that it was forming a coalition with the Black Panther Party. The basis for this coalition was that PFP would take a strong stand in favor of Huey Newton, Black Panther "Defense Minister" scheduled to stand trial soon in Oakland for the murder of a policeman. Whether this coalition was responsible for the tide of late registrations which put PFP on the ballot is open to question. What is clear is that PFP has consciously chosen to ally itself with about the most vicious group of gun-toting thugs (their armed raid on the State Legislature is still of recent memory) ever to appear on the California or indeed the national scene. And the leaders of PFP can hardly claim to be unaware of the anti-Semitism of their new friends since several of their leaders were present at the speech of Ayuko Babu which has previously been referred to. (Babu, incidentally, has since been accused of leading a riot against Dow Chemical Corporation at Cal State L.A. and will stand trial sometime in the future.)

Your correspondent will watch with interest future developments of this new force on the California political scene and will make further reports when necessary. In the meantime, remember one thing. Most of the members of PFP are idealistic, but badly brainwashed young college students. They actually think that by joining this party they can do something for the cause of peace and civil rights. They do not realize that they are simply being used as cannon fodder for revolution, that their party does not stand for "peace and freedom", but for civil race warfare and fascism. If you have any acquaintances who have been misled into joining this party, you should present to them the true facts about it.

A Member - Los Angeles

TO ALL MEMBERS

No: L.A., Calif: We still have on hand at this time many different flyers and are producing new ones regularly. Flyers on hand at the present moment cover such subjects as terrorism, the "organized" Jewish Community, patriotism, social security, the Middle Eastern situation, persecution of the Jewish Community in the Soviet Union Black Power, and many other topics. We have already found, by just limited distribution on a small scale, that these flyers are a most effective way to reach people, to wake people up, to educate them, and to motivate them to do something about the Communist menace which threatens our country. The distribution of flyers requires little time, energy, or money - we are still asking to cover costs, $1.00 for lots of 50 of the same type or assorted. We also ask that if any members have any materials such as pamphlets, reprints, newspaper articles, etc., which can be used in flyers, please send them to WC Headquarters. We'd also appreciate any suggestions concerning topics for flyers that we might be missing out on. We want to produce a flyer on every subject which is pertinent to the struggle between freedom and tyranny, between God and the forces of atheism - but above all we wish to miss no issue which is in the public mind. It is up to you to let us know what your friends and acquaintances are concerned about.

Remember, it is also of vital importance to recruit new members. Send us the names and addresses of anyone you know who might be interested in the JSA. If they are from other parts of the country besides the West Coast, we can forward the information on to our National Headquarters for a follow up. Remember, everyone is a potential member of the JSA.

We are also still accepting orders for bumper stickers or buttons at the price of 25 cents each, 6 for one dollar, or 15 cents each in lots of 25 or more.

Naziism = National Socialism
Communism = International Social

X11: L.A., Calif: From March 2 to March 10, the Bolshoi Ballet will be playing at the Music Center in Los Angeles - a good occasion to picket and pass out flyers.

CLOSING REMARKS

Dear Member,

I am appealing to you to do all that is possibly within your power to help our JSA during the coming year. I do not need to tell you that 1968 will be a crucial year for us and for the country. In Los Angeles, leftist radio commentators are referring to 1967 as "Year 1 of the Revolution". During "Year 1", more than 10,000 Americans were killed in our Administration's no-win war in Vietnam. In "Year 1", dozens of American cities were delivered over to fanatic Communist-led mobs for burning and looting. Do any of you have any doubts as to what "Year 2" will bring? And the money to finance this revolution - it's coming from you and me through the tax money which our "liberal" government brazenly confiscates to finance its "War on Poverty" - the name it chooses to use for what is in fact the main conduit of funds directly into the hands of the Communist and racist fanatics who are determined to set this country aflame. We in the JSA do not have a CIA or Office of Economic Opportunity to finance us - nor do we want one. We are completely dependent on the voluntary contributions of our members. That is why we are asking you to give as you have never given before to support this cause. This country's heritage of freedom is the most precious gift that we can pass on to our children. Yet there are influential men at large today who boast of their ability to destroy this heritage by 1970 at the latest, and perhaps by the end of this year. Only you can stop them. Please, give generously of your time, energy, and money, to "Proclaim Liberty throughout the Land" in 1968.

Yours truly,

GEORGIA GABOR

It is time to abandon our ostrich policy! Sticking our heads in the sand in hopes that if we don't see the problems they don't exist, is worse than apathy. By not helping in every way you can to halt the efforts of our enemies, is essentially aiding their success. Wake up, fellow Americans, we are in World War III. Only naive, misguided, or comisymp politicians can deny this - not the well-informed citizens!

Look around you. Drawing from the flamengo-pink news media: 'Four children trampled in Jr. High Riot' (L.A.) ... 'Student Disorders Erupt at 4 High Schools, Policeman Hurt' (L.A.) ... 'Anti-Jewish Terror in a Dixie Town' ... 'Gold Soars as Dollar Falters' ... 'Polish Government Blames Unrest on Zionists' ... 'Kremlin Supplies Most Arab Arms, Boosts Presence Through Aid Projects' (L.A. Times) ... 'Vietnam Casualties Exceed Korean War Level' ... Are these signs of peace? Or even a "Cold War"? It seems mighty hot to me.

Our government officials represent the people; those who speak the loudest. What have you been doing to let them know you are misrepresented? Voted in the last presidential election ... good; in last year's local election ... fine; you told your friends that ... The conspirators give money, leadership, untiring effort, total dedication to alter all that we call the great American way of life. And you expect to preserve it by ... No, my friends. It is now or never. For the sake of your own futuro, your children's and grandchildren's future, take it from one who witnessed the growth from inception of National Socialism (Nazism) and International Socialism (Communism) in the small country of Hungary; one who sees the blossoming pre-teen stage of this menace here in America. Your money (whatever you'll have left) won't buy back your freedom; your efforts will only get you on blacklists in less than two or three years.

What can you, just one average American citizen, do? Plenty! - Have an organization like the JSA represent your views. Help us to become the representing voice of the American Jewry, to be heard by and be the spokesmen for the millions of freedom-loving, non-prejudiced, law-abiding, true, proud Americans who are willing to fight for the preservation of our God-given rights. . . . How?

1. Write to your Congressman and representatives and ask your friends to do the same; let them know what their electors want.

2. Distribute 10 of our flyers or pieces of literature everyday. Not just to your friends, but mail them to members of the news media, politicians, educators, religious and community leaders, etc. We must counteract the left-wing propaganda they are constantly bombarded with.

3. Ask your acquaintances to become members of the JSA; bring them to meetings, ask them to help us distribute literature. Educate those who do not as yet see the tie-up between the internal and international troubles of our times.

4. Support our efforts financially. We are a non-profit organization run by non-salaried personnel. Your donations determine the extent of our efforts.

World Economic Catastrophe - How Soon?

While the ranks of American patriots contain many persons with an outstanding knowledge of political matters, it is unfortunately true that they contain far fewer experts on economics. There are probably three reasons for this. First, economics is simply not as interesting as politics; indeed, to many people it is a dry and boring science. Second, because Marxism and socialism profess to be economic interpretations of history, many conservatives have come to distrust any emphasis on economics in the interpretation of history as "materialistic". Third and most important, the clique of Keynesian socialists (and worse) who have dictated the economic policies of the United States since the Roosevelt era, have conspired to make of economics a mysterious religion of which they are the high priests. They claim that economics is too complex to be understood by the ordinary person (or even the successful businessman), but that its secrets are revealed to them - not of course through any actual experience in the world of business or finance, but through the inspired teaching of fellow socialists at Harvard and various points left.

Since World War II, several conservative economists have successfully challenged the various socialist theories of the establishment and have restored some degree of economic sanity to the policies of some governments - although unfortunately not to ours. The contributions of the "Austrian School" (neo-capitalist) economists such as Von Mises, Senholtz, Hayek, and Roepke

States.

Because of inattention to economic matters by patriots (I'm speaking generally - there are honorable exceptions), we have now reached the situation where a world economic catastrophe now threatens and it may begin even within a few weeks - yet the American public has not even an inkling of the danger.

Only a few of the warning signs have been given any attention. Most Americans are vaguely aware of De Gaulle, vanishing gold, and something called the "balance of payments deficit". They also know that Johnson's solution to the problem is to place heavy restrictions on the American citizen's right to travel, without, however, ending the vast foreign aid programs which are the cause of the problem to start with. Some Americans (and certainly most conservatives) are aware that the House of Representatives recently voted to lift the gold cover and permit the export of the remainder of the US gold reserves. But how many Americans are even remotely aware of the grave consequences which will result from the use of fiat money by the government.

One of the few financial reports which has given a clear analysis of the present economic situation is Myers' Finance Review, published in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. This report has been recommended to your correspondent by several informed patriots living in the L.A. area, including one extremely successful stock broker. The following are extended excerpts from the Myers' Finance Review of February 16, 1968. All emphasis is as in the original.

". . . . Outlook is for growing war. Growing war has Russia escalating quantity and quality of arms. Rising costs as U.S. tries to match arms and manpower in the bogs of Asia. Losing proposition draining U.S. reserves . . . Soaring costs making mockery out of present budget - deficit could rise to $30 billion. Rising deficit undermines the dollar and foretells repeated runs on gold and silver - near term.

"Gold Cover bill, unless acted on right away, will be stopped in Congress by frightening events, resulting in embargo or devaluation by March 31.

"Stock market - has violated every conceivable support now confirms beginning of second leg of massive bear market which began Spring of '66. This is the Panic Leg and we are in it. Rallies will be weak and short lived. This leg will carry to D.J. 500 or less this year.

"The End of an Era - the foreflushers, big spenders, tall talkers, inflationists, Keynesians, theorists now face Armageddon - as we begin to move painfully back toward sanity, old-fashioned principles - common sense.

"Wailing and gnashing of teeth as the common man "wakes up" to realize there is no "pie in the sky" - and his Politicians Lied.

". . . . The gold cover bill is a gambit, characteristic of the dishonesty and insincerity of the U.S. administration. It wants all the creditors to believe that $12 billion gold is available and using this lie it wants to persuade them that they are so safe there is no reason for them to call for gold.

"Of course, it will not work. Because once a prevaricator has proven his devious ways, his insincerity becomes public knowledge, he is finished. The lie has now become the trademark of the U.S. Administration. Therefore no one will believe that all the gold will be made available. Therefore the moment Congress releases the gold - if it does - the run will start. Sharp foreigners will know that the first $2 or $3 billion will break the Bank. They are waiting for the doors to open.

". . . . Another ominous factor: Those who bought gold during the crisis months of November and December have not released it. Normally each gold crisis results in large returns of gold when people find out that the expected devaluation has not occurred. This time they are holding on.

"No end in sight in the scramble for gold. Pressure can only get worse as time goes on. Any startling event will trigger the climactic run.

" The next gold crisis will produce a silver crisis all of its own - quite irrespective of the inherent critical silver situation already.

" In January Robert A. Wallace, Asst. Secretary of the Treasury said: The U.S. Treasury is not running out of silver - users have nothing to worry about.

" Another report from a man who tried to buy silver bullion from Mandy & Harman. He had read the H&H public statement that there is 'no physical shortage of silver and that there is not likely to be.' Mid price up 3¢, and that H&H had its official quotation on the D.J. by 2¢ to $1.83. It looked like a good deal to buy from H&H and sell on the New York Exchange. So he tried it. He got the same reply as the man I told you about last issue who tried to buy 50,000 oz. from H&H. They refused to do business with him. He asked them, 'If you quote it, why won't you sell it?' They would only sell to bonified users, they said.

"Isn't this strange? There are no strings on silver in the U.S. It is a freely traded commodity. H&H says there is lots of it. They quote a price far below the market price yet they.

"Undaunted, my subscriber went to s. Result the same.

"When my informant telephoned the and asked them why they continue to publish a price which is absolutely meaningless, the Journal tried to unload him fast. Their lame answer - 'Industry has gone by H&H quotes for years, so it must be reliable.' This is like saying the sun always shines in California so even if you are getting soaking wet out there - it obviously can't be raining. When you see the financial press of a country going along with the deceit and insincerity, you know that the deadrot is now making its final and fatal attack.

" I learn from the European press that the French do not believe removal of the gold cover will have any significant effect. Whether Congress passes this law or not, it is felt that the U.S. government will not pay out very much more gold. If correct, this could only mean embargo - near term.

"As investors we should squarely face the truth today. The runs on the dollar will continue. A gold embargo followed by a re-evaluation of gold is not only possible, or probable, it is absolutely inevitable.

"Each week gives signs of decreasing dollar confidence. How can this possibly be remedied under growing expenses of war and extravagant programs at home?

"Furthermore, United States credibility has fallen to near zero throughout the world. Even high placed Americans say: MacNamara lied; Johnson lied; the Treasury lied. Hardly a word of truth comes from the White House any more: This in itself hastens the dollar toward its collapse.

"No, my subscribers, wishful thinking will not help us. And it will not help your country. The greatest thing that you can do for your country is to make sure that some of you at least have resources left when this is all over."

World Economic Catastrophe - Another Look

Since the publication of the Myers' Finance Review of February 16, the gold crisis has developed so rapidly that many of Myers' predictions are now history and many more may have come to pass before you read these lines. It is important to realize that high level conspirators in political and financial circles of both our government and foreign governments are promoting this world economic crisis as part of their many pronged offensive against the people of the United States. There is still time (but very little) to avert an economic disaster that would make the world depression of the 1930s look like "happy times" by comparison. We must demand of the politicians that they end all foreign aid (particularly to Communist nations) now. That they end all unnecessary government spending now. That they permit the military to win the war in Vietnam and hence end the unbelievable cost in lives and money now. And if the politicians will not take these actions, they must be replaced in November 1968 by patriots who will.

Russia Should Pay Its Debts

The President of the United States insists on reducing the balance of payments liability, and even wants to increase by 10 per cent the tax we already pay on our meager wages. This increase would not the administration an additional $500 million; well, why not demand all or at least a token payment from Soviet Russia of the $10½ billion she owes the U.S. for wheat shipments, as well as another $40 billion for other materials?

The administration doesn't hesitate to do business on a long-term credit basis with the Soviets, and then wants the people of our great country to pick up the tab incurred by our avowed enemies. It is high time the administration takes a definite stand for victory, and stop giving aid and trade to the enemy.

Xo -- L.A. We still have on hand many flyers and are constantly producing more. We have the Principles of the JSA ("We Believe") now on mimeographed flyer with an application blank. This method of distribution of our principles will prove far less expensive than the use of printed pamphlets, and, with an application blank attached, the flyer should prove to be an effective recruiting tool. This flyer, and others are available at 50 for $1.00 (to cover our costs). Subjects include the Middle Eastern Situation, Black Power, Soviet Anti-Semitism, and many others.

We still have available the booklet "The Real Power Behind Anti-Semitism" by the Reverend W.S. McBurnie, D.R.E. These 64-page booklets are available from West Coast Headquarters at 35 cents per copy, 3 for 90 cents, or 10 for $2.50. Wide distribution of these booklets is an effective means to counteract the ever-increasing influence of the Communist Anti-Semitism.

It is a happy holiday that both Christians and Jews are celebrating currently. The Jewish Pesach commemorates the liberation of our ancestors from the Pharaoh's slavery. As we go to our Houses of God and as we sit down to our Seder table, let us not forget that while we can happily reminisce and celebrate with all the proper religious trimmings, millions of our brethren in Communist countries not only are not allowed to commemorate major religious events, but are today in slave labor camps, having a fate no less torturous than that of our ancestors under the Pharaohs. In the name of our many millions of brethren who were tortured to death because of their belief in the Almighty, in the name of those who are captive, but still alive, let us make a resolution that we, who live in freedom, will do all we can to help preserve our freedoms and help to free those suffering. Let us offer this resolution to God and let us not forget about it during the coming year.

Soviet Jewry - An Updated Report

Reprinted from the JSA Newsletter - Volume 2, No. 3, Autumn 1967

This year of 1967 marks the fiftieth anniversary of an historical event which must rank in the minds of free men everywhere as one of the most tragic occurrences of our modern age. In October of 1917 the newly established provisional government of Russia which had been laboring for nine months to lay the foundations of parliamentary government was brutally overthrown by a small but ruthless cabal of Bolshevik conspirators committed to the establishment of what they euphemistically referred to as "the dictatorship of the proletariat." The resulting Communist tyranny has, over the past fifty years, compiled a record of oppression, brutality and inhumanity rarely excelled in the history of man. The bloody record of Soviet atrocities is, for the most part, kept from the American people by a news media largely under the control of those committed to a philosophy of co-existence at any price, but thanks to the growing anti-Communist movement in our nation, the true story of the fifty year nightmare behind the Iron Curtain is now being brought to the attention of more and more of our fellow citizens. We as Jewish anti-Communists feel a special responsibility to bring to the attention of our co-religionists and fellow countrymen one particular aspect of the Soviet barbarism: that of the planned and chillingly systematic war of spiritual annihilation which the Communists have been waging against the Jewish people for the past half century.

Members of the Jewish Society of Americanists are already familiar with the history of Soviet anti-Semitic policies as outlined in our JSA booklet: The Destruction of the Russian Jewish Community. They know that under Soviet rule nearly all traces of a once vibrant Jewish community life have been destroyed in Russia. All but a few synagogues have been forcibly closed by the authorities along with all Rabbinical Seminaries, religious schools, Jewish publications and other media of cultural expression. It is forbidden to instruct one's children in the Jewish faith or the Hebrew language and all attempts to observe the traditional rituals of Judaism are either carefully regulated by the government or totally suppressed. Emigration is, of course, forbidden thus making escape impossible. The Jews of Russia dare not protest. They remember the fate of those who tried. How can they forget the night of August 12, 1952 in which every outstanding Jewish intellectual leader in the country was arrested by the secret police and summarily executed? They remember too the many Rabbis and Jewish lay leaders who languish in Soviet prisons and labor camps or who have been sentenced to death on trumped-up charges of having committed "economic crimes" against the state. The Russian Jews remember all this and so must we. But Soviet anti-Semitic persecution is no

Semitism in the Soviet Union and so there can be no question either of any new wave because there hasn't been an old one . . . Allegations to the contrary are designed to depict in a false light the situation in our country.

July 1967 - Reports began to leak out of Russia that Jews in substantial numbers were moving from the towns and villages into the larger urban centers in an effort to escape the threat of Communist mob violence growing in the countryside against Jewish communities too small to defend themselves.

August 1, 1967 - Polish Jews were publicly warned once again against sympathizing with their co-religionists in Israel. A Communist mass meeting in Warsaw adopted a resolution stating: "we will not remain indifferent toward people who in the face of a threat to world peace, hence also to the security of Poland, support the aggressor."

August 2, 1967 - The Polish government was reported to have initiated a major campaign in which anti-Jewish and anti-Israel propaganda statements were being distributed to all Polish army units.

August 6, 1967 - The Soviet Novosti Press Agency released an attack on Zionism and Jews which was printed in papers throughout Russia. Zionism was compared to the Mafia and referred to as "a dangerous weapon of the imperialistic West."

August 7, 1967 - Speaking in Geneva, Israel's U.N. representative in that city referred to "a heavy cloud of foreboding which hangs over the Jews in the Soviet Union because of the anti-Jewish overtones of the unbridled Soviet campaign of incitement against Israel."

August 10, 1967 - Rabbi Bernard A. Poupko, vice-president of the Rabbinical Council of America reported a new wave of anti-Jewish sentiments and discrimination sweeping the Soviet Union. "The three and a quarter million already isolated, wronged, and frightened Jews are now exposed to a new wave of hatred and suspicion which may make their life almost intolerable within Soviet Society."

August 14, 1967 - A bomb, planted by "persons unknown" exploded at a meeting in Buenos Aires which had been called to protest growing Soviet anti-Semitic abuses and to commemorate the Communist murders of the leading Russian Jewish intellectuals on August 12, 1952.

August 16, 1967 - Ladislav Mnacko, a leading Czech author whose citizenship has been revoked by his country's Communist rulers accused the Czech government and Communist party of being made up of virulent anti-Semites who "hurried to adopt an anti-Israel line only in order to create an anti-Jewish atmosphere in the country." The Czech people, he said, did not support this policy "but they don't dare open their mouths."

August 20, 1967 - The body of Charles H. Jordan, vice chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee, an international Jewish relief organization, was found floating in the Zoltava River in Prague, Czechoslovakia. Mr. Jordan, who was on duty in Prague, had disappeared from his hotel room several days before.

August 20, 1967 - Rabbi Solomon Freilich who had traveled to Russia to observe the plight of the Jewish Community was expelled from the country by the Soviet authorities and charged with "violating Soviet hospitality." This action was noted as part of an effort by Soviet authorities to conceal the true situation of Soviet Jewry from outside view.

August 21, 1967 - Louis Broide, chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee, issued a statement regarding the mysterious death in Prague of his organization's Vice-chairman. Mr. Broide stated that "it is absolutely impossible for us to accept the explanations of the Czech Government is covering up a vile crime of which they must have had knowledge."

September 5, 1967 - The Czech Government cancelled permission for the Jewish community to celebrate the one thousandth anniversary of Czech Jewry.

September 6, 1967 - The newspaper, Ukrainian Pravda, official organ of the Ukrainian Communist Party, published an article entitled "In the Service of Reaction" in which Jews were attacked as traitors. The article stated that "the Jewish religion has always been the maid-servant of the capitalists."

November 8, 1967 - Two years ago, Soviet authorities forcibly closed down the one remaining synagogue in Talinn, capital of Estonia. Widespread protests resulted. Today the Communists answered the criticism. In a calculated insult to the Jewish community of 4,500 souls, the authorities offered them a building in which to hold religious services - a small wooden shed on the outskirts of town. The synagogue itself, closed two years ago, remains closed along with thousands of other locked synagogues throughout the Soviet Union.

November 15, 1967 - Reports reached the Baltimore Sun that the anti-Semitic campaign of the Communist Government of Poland had resulted in many Jews being dismissed from their jobs after being accused of sympathy for Israel.

And the tale goes on . . . an ugly tale of persecution and oppression which if allowed to continue uninterrupted, can have only one ending - the total disappearance of the Russian Jewish community and the total subjugation of those small groups of Jews living in the captive nations of Eastern Europe. It is not an easy thing to conceive of the disappearance of one quarter of the world's Jewish population. But, this is the prospect which the Jews of the Soviet Union face today. Without Rabbis or synagogues, teachers or religious instruction, how long can they hold out against the intense pressure being placed on them by their Communist masters? Without community organizations of any kind, how long can they remain Jews in any meaningful sense of the word?

Not so long ago an old Jew wrote an "Obituary of the Jews of the Soviet Union." This lament was translated by Ben Ami in his recent book, Between Hammer and Sickle. It reflects only too clearly the hopelessness of Soviet Jewry.

"We suffer from an incurable disease which no doctor and no medicine will help. We do not agonize day by day, but from one hour to the next. We are lost forever. We do not leave anyone to say memorial prayers for us. There is no one to set a tombstone over us, and no sign of us will be left. We will be lost like the shadow of a passing bird and like a stone that is hurled into the abyss . . . The Messiah will not come to the Jews of our generation in Russia. And if he should, he would be too late. He will come when there is no one left to save from the darkness of our exile. . . "

We must do all in our power to restore the lost hope of this Jew and of the millions for whom he speaks. We cannot liberate the Soviet Jews and other captive peoples overnight but there are things that we can do; there are steps that we can undertake which will bring closer the eventual day of liberation. We must continue to cry out against the horrors of Soviet oppression: We must continue to demonstrate at Soviet embassies and before the U.N. and most importantly, we must continue to work toward the day when a strongly anti-Communist government will take office in Washington, a government which will not fear to apply the necessary economic and diplomatic pressures against the Communist Empire to force the Soviet tyrants to open the gates of emigration to the oppressed millions who seek escape from the horrors of Bolshevik rule. This is our task here in America. Let us proceed with it with confidence in the justice of our cause and a firm faith in the ultimate triumph of freedom.

CAPITOL SPOTLIGHT - by Milton Friedman

Reprinted from the Arizona Post, Friday March 15, 1963

A breakthrough in the wavering struggle to mobilize the U.S. government into action to alleviate the plight of Soviet Jewry may come from a dramatic new move in Congress proposed by House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford.

Rep. Ford possesses great influence in the Republican Party and is expected to serve as Chairman of the Republican National Convention in Miami this summer.

He has charged that things could have been done by the United States to help the Jews in Russia but "no such policy exists in the Johnson Administration."

The Republican leader announced that "when the next measure comes before Congress involving East-West trade or a similar appropriate bill" he would offer an amendment, preferably with bipartisan support, to specify that the Kremlin must "display concern for American opinion in Soviet policies affecting the Jews."

He pointed out that "Federal laws now require that all business concerns trading with the Government treat employees on a non-discriminatory basis." A similar demand, he said should be made of the USSR. Anti-Jewish policies might be ameliorated if "the Kremlin comes to realize that such bias is simply bad business in terms of world trade and commerce."

Recalling that Presidents Grant and Taft used Government influence to aid oppressed Jews abroad, Ford noted that "our Government has expressed itself on the racial policies of the Union of South Africa and Rhodesia." He charged that President Johnson did nothing in his dealings with Soviet leaders to help Russian Jews.

Ford said he did not understand "why more cannot be done in Washington to let the rulers of the Soviet Union know that the Government of the United States cares about what happens to the Russians of Jewish faith." He noted that "some say that it is all too easy for an opposition political party to oppose policies of the Administration." In this instance, however, he wanted "to propose a policy to help Russian Jews" because "no such policy exists."

Asserting his belief that Russia is responsive, within limits, to world public opinion, Ford added that "there are things that the Kremlin wants from the United States." He cited an international aviation agreement and Moscow's desire to expand trade with the United States.

Such measures, in cases requiring Congressional approval, may be amended with anti-bias clauses "to dramatize to the Russians that we mean business."

Administration sources have responded that intervention in the "internal affairs" of the USSR to help the Jews was undesirable. They said such a move might be embarrassing to U.S. diplomacy because it would indicate to the Arabs that Washington had some special concern for foreign Jewish communities. Also, State Department officials said, it might "generate anti-Semitism in Moscow" while giving the Kremlin "ideas about protesting the treatment of Negroes in the United States."

Ford said that regardless of Administration opposition he thought his measure would pass.

He added that "I have yet to hear our President publicly voice gratification that Israel, a free nation, has defeated aggression."

Ford said "pressures against the Jewish people (in Russia) have been intensified following the defeat by Israel of the Russian-backed Arab aggression. When the USSR severed diplomatic relations with Israel last June, all exit visas for Jews were abruptly cancelled." He warned that "systematic cultural genocide may finally liquidate the once-flourishing Russian Jewish community."

According to Ford, his amendment "would keep the faith with the six million Jews who died during World War II. We grieve that some of those brutal murders could have been averted by more affirmative action by free people of other lands at that time."

Ford recalled that the President "said many times that we are in Vietnam to draw a line against Communist aggression." "I cannot understand how we are keeping faith with our brave men in Vietnam, who are holding the line, when we are so mysteriously silent about the end run the Russians are taking through the Middle East and into the Mediterranean," the Republican leader said. Nor could he understand "why the Johnson Administration finds so many excuses for failing to aid the oppressed Jews of Russia."

"The conscience of the world was not aroused until too late when Nazi genocide liquidated over six million Jewish people," said Ford. "Some of the survivors of Nazism, those who reside in the Soviet Union, find themselves again subjected to discriminatory treatment because of their religious faith, Ford recalled.

LODGE REPORTS

Some Notes and Recollections on the Great Riot at San Francisco State College Lawrence Beliz

As a reporter for the college radio station, I had a chance to see a lot more than most students on the day of the great riot of December 6, 1967 at San Francisco State. I was stationed inside the administration building, the ideal (if you can call it that) viewing spot.

Trouble first started with the cutting off of further funds for "Open Process", a radical weekly newspaper which had published a questionable poem dedicated to a member of the faculty. The editor and a staff member were suspended. A little later, in a "civil rights" dispute, nine members of the Black Students Union, an anti-white extremist organization, were arrested for breaking into the office of the "Daily Gater", terrorizing the staff and beating up the editor.

On the morning of December 6, Hoodlums of the lowest order were imported onto the campus. They gathered in small groups here and there. The college radio station was working feverishly on keeping up to date on all the upcoming developments. It is to be pointed out that this "demonstration" was planned by the Movement Against Political Suspensions or MAPS, which is a coalition of ultra-leftist students. The noon hour was the deadline for the lifting of the suspensions of the aforementioned students. The college radio station sent me down to the administration building just before its doors were locked against the anticipated "mill-in" as MAPS called it. A small group of newsmen were inside and on top of the administration building. Shortly before noon, a man with a bullhorn started to attract a crowd. Pretty soon, the crowd was led up to the entrance of the Administration Building.

Left-wing agitators raved and frothed at the mouth. A group of students formed by the glass doors and started to pound on them in rhythm to the chant of "HELL NO, NO SUSPENSIONS!!!!". As time wore on, the crowd worked itself up to higher and higher plateaus of maddened frenzy. The glass doors rocked more and more violently until some feet kicked away the glass at the bottom of one of the doors. Slivers of glass from the shattered door fell to the ground and the first person in was a bearded, scroungy looking type. A few seconds later, John Gerassi, a pro-Communist professor, made his way in and embraced one of the students for his or her (I couldn't tell the sex) part in breaking down the door.

People streamed in through the shattered door. Windows could occasionally be heard breaking. Ashtrays were overturned and fire extinguishers were ripped from their moorings. Some students were carrying signs of the organizations which participated in the anarchy. One sign said - San Jose SDS, and another said - Iranian Students Union, which is a leftist organization which opposes the Shah's present government in Iran. A couple of students put up a sign on the transom of the Administration Building which said - Liberated Area.

I was reporting into my tape recorder when all of a sudden, an irate rioter grabbed me by the collar and asked who I was reporting for. I told him. He then knocked my tape recorder out of my hands and slammed me against the wall, snarling, "Don't report this!" I did not try to get back my tape recorder because I did not want to risk getting beaten up by the rioters. A bunch of newsmen immediately started to interview me, with leftists in the background remarking that I was working for the CIA, FBI or some other investigative body. This incident was later given mention on Radio and TV.

I later learned that the rioters had hit much more than just the Administration Building. They attacked people in the cafeteria, looted and set a small fire in the bookstore, smashed some of its windows and fired two shots through one window. Some newsmen had their cameras smashed and were physically assaulted. The thugs who were imported onto the campus were so cantankerous that they sometimes fought among themselves. It was quite a miracle that nobody was killed. The police did absolutely nothing; not one single person was arrested that day.

President John Summerskill gave his excuse for not calling on the police as to "avoid provoking a bloodbath"! This excuse is not bought by many students at S.F. State - they have other ideas on the subject.

YAF vs. IBM

The Young Americans for Freedom are sponsoring a project to make IBM Corporation uncomfortably aware that their policies of doing big business with the Muscovite Communists while American soldiers die in Vietnam is not going to win the any popularity with the American public. If this project is a success it may serve as an example to other firms who continue to trade with the enemy. We therefore urge all members to complete the enclosed ballots against IBM and return to the address indicated promptly. These ballots were obtained complimentary from Young Americans for Freedom. Here is an opportunity for us to support another patriotic organization in a worthwhile drive.

As the headquarters lodge for the WCJSA, we have three major functions:
1. To recommend, evaluate, advise, etc., i.e. to help our West Coast Director and National Program Chairman, Georgia Gabor, to devise an effective JSA program.
2. To serve as a pilot group in testing out various projects and undertakings.
3. To serve as a model JSA Lodge for others throughout the country.
However, for the successful execution of the JSA program, we depend on YOU. Are you doing your share? How many flyers have you distributed? How many petitions have you completed? How much have you donated to cover the cost of our literatures? How many buttons and stickers have you ordered? --- If you disapprove of any of our efforts, let us hear from you. If you approve, get on the ball! It is your freedom too that we are trying to protect!

If you mail us a $1.00 donation, we'll send you a packet consisting of the following: 1 button, 1 sticker, and 25 flyers (assorted).

Don't let us down --- we are depending on each one of YOU!

Closing Remarks

By now each one of you have received our Petition Packet. I can't emphasize enough the importance of this drive. The Jewish Conservatives' voice has not been audible in the past. This must not remain so. We must become the representatives of the American Jewry and we must do it fast. We can't think of a better way of getting to be known and to make an impact than by presenting 100,000 or more signatures on our petitions to our political machinery during an election year.

Some of our members have filled their 5 petitions already; what about you? Please remember:

1. Everyone is a potential signer.
2. No one may sign more than once.
3. Only 10 Signatures per petition form.
4. Each person approached receives a "Fact Sheet" and a "We Believe".
5. Put your name, in pencil, on the back of the petition.
6. Send completed forms back to our W.C. office and request additional supplies.

May you have the Almighty's blessing in your efforts.

Patriotically yours,

Georgia Gabor

WEST COAST REPORT

Vol II #6

. . . "I am only one, but I am one. I can't do everything, but I can do something. And what I can do, that I ought to do. And what I ought to do, by the grace of God, I shall do."

Edward Halo

Dear Members and Friends of the JSA,

First and foremost, I wish to express my deepest gratitude to those of you who have devoted much time and effort to support our major current project, the petition drive. A few of our members have secured already more than a hundred signatures. From many of you, however, we have not heard as yet.

Could it be due to lack of interest? I hope not! Israel, one of the few countries actively fighting the Kremlin's allies, needs our help. Our government is ignoring their cry as it ignored the cry of the Hungarian freedom fighters, Rhodesians, Cubans, and all others who embarked upon a struggle against the Communists. Our government, strangely, seems to refuse or greatly restrict trade and aid to our friends, to those countries that share our political and economic philosophies, while it increases trade and aid to our enemies, the countries which are part of the Communist block. If our politicians are naive, we must educate them; if they sincerely wish to represent public opinion, we must let them know what the public wants; if they are protecting our enemies, we must replace them. In any case, we, the members and friends of the JSA, must alert the public and the political machinery that the Communists' persecution of the Jews is no different from that of the Nazis; that the possible fall of Israel, one of the few remaining actively anti-Communist nations, would not only be a severe blow to America's deepest and best principles, but would place the Red Colossus astride the bridge to three continents with a strangle-hold on the major trade routes of the world and turn the Mediterranean Sea into a red lake. Our petition packet is designed to alert America to precisely these facts.

Therefore, each one of us should get signatures and distribute our Fact Sheets by the hundreds and thousands - especially now, during the campaign periods. Many of our brethren and those sympathetic to our beliefs are in influential positions. Our organization is young and many of them have not even heard of us. We have no money to buy publicity; we depend on the efforts of our members. Please, do not procrastinate. Devote 2 - 3 hours each week and stand in front of a busy store collecting signatures.

It is not hard. None but the anti-Semites can object to signing. If someone has doubts, let him read the Fact Sheet and the We Believe. As soon as you have completed a petition, mail it in and let us know how many additional petitions or Fact Sheets you will need. We are counting on you to do the job in the months ahead.

FROM OUR MEMBERS

The following excerpts are quoted from the article "Will Israel be the Next Viet Nam?" by Irene Corbally Kuhn - Copyright 1968, King Features Synd.

". . . President Gamal Abdel Nasser told the Egyptian military forces that another war with Israel was inevitable and it was their responsibility to 'liquidate completely' the consequences of the war last June.

"Since the remarkable Israeli victory in that six-day war, all efforts to bring lasting peace to the turbulent Middle East have failed. Only two months ago the principal parties to the Middle East dispute seemed to be ready for real peace negotiations. Tel Aviv, Amman and Cairo were reported to have agreed to a UN Security Council resolution of last November 22 as the basis for discussions in Cyprus, site of the 1949 armistice talks.

"Then Egypt abruptly repudiated the agreement. Since then there have been renewed border incidents, raids, killings, with each side blaming the other.

"Israel's complaint in the United Nations that the Security Council had failed to censure the Arabs for their refusal to respond to the peace effort was fully justified. The diplomatic back-and-forth was undermined further when the Security Council adopted a resolution asking Israel to cancel a parade through former Jordanian Jerusalem to celebrate its 20th anniversary as a sovereign nation.

"What occurred thereafter has not spoiled progress toward peace.

"Unquestionably, choosing up sides has been going on steadily in the past 11 months. Soviet Russia has quietly moved an impressive navy into the Mediterranean, where she has established anchor points of strong support in both Algiers and Egypt. The Red naval build-up had been aided by gaining de facto naval bases in Syria, Egypt, and Yemen.

"France's intransigent President de Gaulle has virtually joined hands with the Soviets against Israel. Israel has paid for 50 French Mirage jets, but France has refused to turn them over. Nobody in the United Nations or anywhere else that I can discover has even mildly criticized France for this.

"Yet intelligence sources say the Soviets have built the Arab armed forces back to their former numerical strength and equipment. The Syrian army has more tanks and modern equipment now and its air force has been 'significantly strengthened.' Israeli military sources have said, as well, that the Soviet Union is establishing its own air force in the Mideast.

"New York Assemblyman Joseph Kottler (D. - Bklyn.) in an interview with Jewish Press, a respected Jewish weekly, charged that 'the United States Department of State has decided not to comply with Israel's request for Phantom fighter jets.' In a letter to Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Assemblyman Kottler reminded him that President Johnson, following a meeting with Israel Prime Minister Levi Eshkol, publicly stated that the question of the Phantoms was 'under active and sympathetic consideration.' The meeting took place last January at the LBJ ranch.

"Mr. Kottler said he could not understand why Israeli requests for arms and planes always end up 'under consideration' while Jordanian requests are almost always granted immediately. He added that it would take a year from the time the request was made for the planes to arrive in Israel, procedural red tape being what it is."

LODGE REPORTS:

X₂₁: Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Krieger and Mr. and Mrs. Sternborg for having given birth to our newest Lodge, X₂₁. Drawing their membership from the Orange County area, this lodge promises to be a challenging match for X₀, the present nucleus of the WCJSA activities. We wish you the best of luck and all God's blessings.

X₄₂: From the Tucson Daily Citizen, Thursday, May 2, 1968.

"A march and rally are being planned in Tucson for May 11 in connection with 'Victory in Vietnam Week.'"

"'Victory in Vietnam Week', which begins Monday, is aimed at an all-out effort to win the war in Southeast Asia.

"Taking part in the event here are Tucson TRAIN Committee, Truth About Civil Turmoil, Young Americans for Freedom, and the local chapter of the Jewish Society of Americanists. (Ed. Note - Our Emphasis)

"The 'march for victory' will originate at the main gate of the University of Arizona, proceed down Speedway Boulevard and end at the Randolph Park bandshell with a rally."

X : We note with disappointment that only a handful of orders have come in yet for our packets. We feel it is little to ask that each member should order at least one packet, containing a JSA button, a bumper sticker, and 25 assorted flyers for only $1. Ladies and gentlemen, it is of great importance that our organization and our beliefs receive publicity. It takes very little effort or time to wear a button, or display a sticker, or even to leave our literature in offices and on countertops. We must depend on your help. Send your dollar in the enclosed envelope and let our voice be heard.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Jewish Society of America

Most of you have probably noticed from the letterhead on the first page of this report that the name of our organization has been changed. The name Jewish Society of America was decided upon by our National Headquarters. You may be sure that this change in no way represents a departure from the Americanist principles which have inspired our organization since its founding. It is made in hopeful anticipation of the day when these principles will again animate all of America as they did at the birth of this great nation - in anticipation of the day when American and Americanist will once again be synonymous.

Mrs. Hoddi Morritt - In Memoriam

It is with deep sorrow that we report the passing away of one of our most gallant and dedicated members, Mrs. Hoddi Morritt. Mrs. Morritt, the widow of the great Rabbi Max Morritt, has been long involved in the struggle for the vindication of true American and Jewish principles. Her courage and dedication, even at an advanced age were a constant inspiration to all of us. We deeply mourn the passing of this brilliant woman and great Jewish American patriot.

FORWARD

Vacation time is here. Most of you think about relaxing, going to the beach, taking a trip perhaps . . . , just 'getting away from it all'.

After paying your 'graduated income tax' (proposed by Karl Marx, in the Communist Manifesto - Gateway Edition, on page 55) you may still have enough money left to take a trip, and, being an American, you may still be able to travel without restriction; but 'getting away from it all' is impossible.

I just returned from my tour of the East Coast. Here is a brief account of what I saw. New York: Our Vice Chairman, Michael Kogan, gave me a tour of Columbia University. " . . . and this is the building where the bomb exploded. . . No, they are beyond repair. And this structure was occupied by the rioters for 5 days. . . . Oh yes, they smashed the furniture, equipment, etc; 'self-expression', you know . . . Of course, most of the approximately 2 million dollars damage has already been repaired, but the revoltors won: the gymnasium will not be built. That was the 'crime' of the 'imperialistic' administration: wanting to build a gymnasium and recreational facilities on a piece of land which is currently a small portion of a large park. Well, those 'liberal', 'love-in'g students exercised their 'free speech' and showed those 'oppressing' administrators that they won't be pushed around! They even offered 'free' education, so no formal class sessions had to abruptly stop for the rest of the school year."

"Mike, I had enough. Can you take me to a good Broadway show to-night?"

"How uninformed can you get! Did you not know that the actors are striking? However, if you want to watch a free love-in on stage for a nominal cost of $10. per person . . . Greenwich Village is the center of entertainment nowadays." ----- Enough of New York, on to Washington, D.C.

Our capital was deathly quiet and desolate by 10 P.M., when we arrived. Not a soul on the streets. Some 'poor souls', however, were busy knifing and beating the 'living hell' out of each other in Resurrection City. Ambulances and the police were kept busy protecting them from each other. No policeman could be spared to give tickets to the few dozen 'poor souls' who kept throwing milk and juice cartons (splashing the liquid, of course) out of the school bus they were riding in. Nor to the driver of a school bus that kept wavering, blocking a bit more than 2 of the 3 lanes of the street in front of the White House. The next day I returned to take some pictures of the 'resurrected'. After climbing through 4 rows of Pontiacs, Continentals, Thunderbirds, La Mans, and several Cadillacs, ranging mainly from 1967 to 1968 models, I found the inhabitants of the tents, pitched next to their 2 and 3 dockor trailers, quite willing to be photographed. ----- Still trying to 'get away from it all', I took a sightseeing bus. Our first tour was through Congress. I listened with sadness to about 3/4 of our Senators vote in favor of a 10% increase of our already monstrous 'graduated income tax'. ----- I terminated my trip, realizing that we no longer can afford to naively try 'to get away from it all'.

FROM OUR MEMBERS

The following excerpts from the article Guns and Dictatorship by JSA National Advisory Council member, Alan Stang, are taken from a reprint of The Review of the News October 4, 1967. They seem especially timely in view of the recent furor over the need for gun legislation. - Ed.

. . . Thus proceeds the scheme to disarm law-abiding Americans, who are facing the greatest armed crime wave in history - which if unchecked will produce the chaos and disorder the Communists want, and then complete totalitarian dictatorship.

Another part of the scheme is of course the current howl for restrictive gun legislation, which we are told is a way of preventing crime. The theory seems to be that in planning an armed robbery, or the assassination of a President of the United States, a criminal will first apply for a firearms permit at his police station to avoid violating the law. That the theory is of course completely nonsensical was demonstrated during the recent destruction of Newark, where Socialist terrorists used submachine guns. As it happens, submachine guns must be registered, subject to severe penalties, under the National Firearms Act of 1934, a federal law. But the terrorists understandably didn't bother, because if you are planning to destroy the United States, a firearms law becomes an unimportant detail, does it not? Criminals have never and will never obey firearms laws, simply because they are criminals - and criminals don't obey laws.

Not long ago, two murderers escaped from the maximum security area of San Quentin prison, using a machine-gun they had made on the premises - the maximum security area of San Quentin. Indeed, an attorney who is also a firearms expert assures me that a perfectly serviceable firearm can be put together from material found in every home

The weapon can be assembled in ten minutes and is called a "zip" gun.

Is it even remotely conceivable that even if all firearms were completely outlawed, if it were illegal to manufacture or import them, and for even police officers to own them - is it even remotely conceivable that assorted criminals from head-busters to Communists would not take advantage of this lush opportunity, and manufacture their own guns for criminal purposes, just as they manufactured whisky during Prohibition.

Conceivably, most people would agree that such legislation would be good if it somehow were magically able to eliminate all firearms, but since in reality it can't, its only effect is to disarm responsible citizens, who obey laws, and ignore armed criminals, who don't. Its only result is to transfer power from the former to the latter. It is exactly equivalent to a disarmament treaty with the Russians.

And so observe that dictatorship - totalitarian concentration of power - is descending upon the American people, and that the political criminals trying to arrange it are logically shifting the power to rule, slowly and cautiously as always, from the people to the criminals.

That being true, it would be interesting to record the position on the matter taken by another Socialist dictatorship: the one run by Adolph Hitler. I assume you remember him. On March 18, 1938, in Berlin, he issued a new set of gun laws, also signed by Minister of the Interior Frick, replacing the Weimar Republic laws of 1928.

It seems that under Hitler, law-abiding Germans had no unalienable right to bear arms. To do so they had to have a permit, issued by the political criminals then running the country, but of course no permit was granted to "spies, and people suspected of acting against the state," writes Robert Schulze in his description of the law (Waffenrecht, Berlin, Deutscher, Vorschlag, 1938, page 9).

It goes without saying that under part 5, paragraph 3 of the law, "for Jews, this permission will not be granted" (page 9).

The approved applicant was first issued a permit to buy a gun, which was good for a year. There was a separate permit to own the gun, good for three years.

And there were other forms. Hitler really had a gun law, he did. There was a form the manufacturer had to fill in, recording the number of the transaction, the date, the amount of guns, the type of the guns, his name, the serial numbers, and the name and address of the purchaser. The gun dealer filled in two forms, one when he bought the gun, one when he sold it. And there was a form filled in by the salesman.

"All those who produce firearms must keep a book of a specific type, where all the weapons are recorded. For weapons of war, a special book is necessary," Schulze explains (page 18).

"All the weapons production and weapon selling books have to be in a very durable cover, the pages must be in numerical sequence, and the police must put their stamp on the pages. Nothing is allowed to be erased from the book, and it must be written very legibly in ink (page 18)"

Whether or not the people behind the campaign to ban mail-order gun sales in the United States have read Hitler's gun laws, I do not know, but Adolph, says Schulze, decreed as follows: "The mailing of orders through traveling salesmen is only allowed to those people who show that they have a permit to produce weapons, or who are allowed to carry a weapon" (page 11). . . .

"This includes weapons which are used for hunting and for sports" (page 11).

And anyone who broke Hitler's firearms law could be locked up for three years, or fined, or both.

But the most interesting part of Adolph's law was as follows: "A permit to have weapons is not necessary for authorities of the Reichbank and the Reichautobahn

. . . . "All those authorities who are deputies of the Fuehrer, all officials of the National Socialist German Workers Party, and the Reichsminister of the Luftwaffe, are allowed to have guns without any separate permission" (page 13).

Furthermore: "Those people who don't require permission to purchase or carry weapons are the members of the army, the police, the whole SS and SA, including Death's Head group, the employees of the Department of Justice, the border guards (page 16)"

And officials of the Hitler Youth from the bann fuehrer up had the same right (page 17).

So, what had happened here, hadn't it, was that a bunch of Socialist criminals had grabbed the government of Germany, and then they issued a law saying that they - the criminals - could have the guns, but the people could not. Law-abiding Germans had allowed themselves to be disarmed by a Socialist gang, and now there was nothing legal they could do about it.

Remember, this is the gun law imposed on Germany by Hitler and his Nazis. Of course, this doesn't definitely prove that somebody trying to improve a similar law somewhere else is either a Nazi, a Fascist, or an anti-Semite - we don't want to make any wild charges, do we?

Now observe what is happening in America today. Just as they did in Germany during the Weimar Republic, and in Russia during the Koronsky regime, the Socialists are conducting destructive riots, to create the chaos and demoralization they always need to take over. And at the same time, as in Socialist Russia and Socialist Germany, they are destroying local government and drawing all power to the center - to Washington. More and more, one man interferes in every area of what was once private life, exactly as in every other aspiring Socialist dictatorship.

More and more, federal troops are used to replace local police. In fact, Detroit mayor Jerome Cavanaugh recently suggested that federal police be permanently assigned to large, local police departments for possible service in riot control. And Lyndon Johnson is now trying to take control of those departments by way of federal funds via his proposed crime prevention law.

In 1775, the beginning of the end of the tyranny of George III was made by the long rifles of the men of Massachusetts.

But in the near future, if riots, looting and revised penal codes succeed in immobilizing and disarming our local police - in which case they will be replaced by fully armed federal police, exactly as in Communist Russia and Nazi Germany - what would a disarmed American be able to do about it?

You can't fire a "shot heard 'round the world" if you aren't allowed to have any shot.

Crime can be controlled only by enforcing laws, suppressing criminals and supporting your local police.

But the only thing restrictive gun legislation can accomplish is dictatorship.

(All emphasis in the above was added - Ed.)

(The following article is reprinted from The Washington Daily News of June 20, 1968. The incident reported is typical of the sort of thing that was going on in our nation's capital during the time of my visit - G.G.)

Police, Poor Have Touchy 'Confrontation'

About 50 Park and District police, some wearing riot helmets and cradling shot-guns, massed at the entrance of Resurrection City early today as 100 angry residents shouted insults and several pop bottles were thrown.

Poor People's City Marshals finally persuaded the residents to return to the plywood homes, and the last of the policemen left before dawn.

The confrontation came after six Negro teenagers toting wooden tent-poles returned from an "eat-in" at the Statler Hilton Hotel, 16th and K streets nw, walked up to three policemen, one white and two Negro, near Resurrection's main gate, chanting, "Going to get us a whitoy . . . Going to get us a policeman."

The teen-agers were pressed back to the city "limits" where small clusters of angry residents were already muttering over two different rumors that had been spreading thru the camp all evening.

One was that a Negro teen-ager from the city, hit over the head with a baseball bat Tuesday when he and some companions fought with non-camp youngsters playing softball nearby, had died. (He hadn't and is recovering in a hospital here.)

The other rumor was that a policeman had just knifed a resident. Andrea Posey, colored, of Birmingham, Ala., was taken to Freedmen's Hospital at 9:15 last night with a throat cut and a cut above the eye. Park Police said he was injured inside the camp where they are not permitted to enter, and that a fellow camper did it.

With that mood, about 100 Resurrection City residents advanced toward the policemen at the main gate. Reinforcements were rushed to the scene, and the camp marshals finally quelled the trouble.

Shortly after 2:30 a.m., after all had quieted down the Rev. James Bevel arrived and tapped policeman on the shoulder.

"May I inquire why police are standing around with shotguns?"

He was directed to a Park Police officer and demanded that the armed police be withdrawn.

"When you got immature bottle throwers together with immature policemen, you have the makings of a riot," he told the official.

"Is everything quiet inside the camp now?" the officer said.

Rev. Bevil spread his hands. "Everything's cool everywhere."

About 60 residents took one of their buses to the hotel earlier after hearing that the Rev. A. D. King, brother of the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was turned away from the Statler Steakhouse because he wasn't wearing a tie.

The campers seated themselves in the dining room. Hotel officials called police, but went ahead and served them. D.C. Public Safety Director Patrick Murphy, Deputy Chief Jerry V. Wilson, Insp. Eugene Gooding, a representative of the U.S. Attorney General, and others rushed to the scene, observed for awhile, and left.

A Statler spokesman said the dinner bill was "settled non-violently and we consider it a closed incident."

Last night's was at least the second violent incident at the camp. On Tuesday when two ministers were beaten as they tried to leave. They were cut and bruised, but refused treatment and asked that they not be identified.

(The above article has been reprinted exactly, including occasional grammatical lapses. - Ed.)

LODGE REPORTS

X₁₁ - Recently the Soviet Bolshoi Ballet was in Los Angeles, playing at the Shrine Auditorium. Members of Lodge X₁₁ were on hand to pass out JSA literature reminding ballet fans that, while the Communist engage in "cultural exchanges" with the United States, they ruthlessly suppress Jewish culture within the Soviet Union. Cheers for United Zionists Revisionists of America, who had a picket line outside with many signs to remind all who passed about the seamy side of Communist "culture". Congratulations also to a group of Hungarian Freedom Fighters who were there to remind onlookers of how the Soviets had ruthlessly destroyed Hungarian culture.

X₀ - We worked very hard to answer the many requests for educational and recruiting material. Now that we have a variety available, we need YOU to distribute them.

1. Packets: For one dollar donation we'll send you one button, one sticker, and 50 f (assorted, unless you specify title).
2. Buttons: 25 cents each, or 15 cents in quantities of 10 or more. (We finally have the buttons in our possession and have mailed them out to those who ordered one awhile back. Now is the time to get yours.)
3. Flyers 0 for 50, same or assorted.
4. Reports: Past and current issues of the West Coast Report are available for 10 cents apiece or a nickel in quantities of 20 or more.
5. Petitions, Sheets: Free; just tell us how many you want.

AGENDA FOR THE SUMMER

I Recruiting.

1. The most effective method is to ask people outright. Tell your friends the JSA needs them. If they say they are too busy, tell them if they just read our literature and pass them on to someone, they have served the cause. Tell them we expect no more than to keep themselves informed and enlighten others when the opportunity arises. As our new members become more aware of the problems, their dedication will increase. Each of you should be able to bring in 1 member a month. Set your own quota and be determined to fill it.

2. In the enclosed return envelope, send us 3 names each month. We, at Headquarters, will contact your acquaintances.

II Distribute Our Literature

This is perhaps the biggest service you can render. Order our flyers for 2 pennies apiece, West Coast Reports for a nickel. (See list under Lodge Reports.) Leave these around where people are likely to pick them up, or distribute them in front of busy stores or movies. It takes 15 - 20 minutes to pass out 100 flyers and some of the recipients write to us for more information. Even if no one joins, you have educated 100 people! And don't forget to mail our literature to Rabbis, politicians, and representatives of the news media!

III Display Our Stickers and Our Button

Ask your friends to do the same. Stickers can be posted on store windows, buildings, lamp-posts, etc. (Get permission first, of course.) They carry an important message, i.e. Nazism = National Socialism, while Communism = International Socialism. (See price list under Lodge Reports).

IV Get Those Petitions Signed!

While orders for blank petitions have been coming in, relatively few completed petitions have been returned. Remember, we must have at least 10,000 signatures (i.e. 1000 completed petitions) to receive even the slightest attention. Believe me, it is easy to get signatures! Stand in front of any busy store and find yourself completing 2 - 3 forms per hour. Don't forget to hand a Fact Sheet to each passer-by! We supply these free, just let us know via the enclosed envelope how many you want.

V Attend your local LODGE MEETING

Bring your friends with you and help your lodge chairman as much as you can. If there is no lodge in your vicinity, let us know. Now is the time to expand.

CLOSING REMARKS

Don't let us down! Your officers work untiringly, without any reward, to reverse the current trend toward the emergence of an almighty socialistic government. We are helpless without you. Carry out our program and send your donations. Each one of your dollars enables us to reach 15 more people with our literature.

Together we'll win, divided we'll fall!

Patriotically yours,

Georgia Gabor

"The only thing necessary for the success of evil is that good men do nothing."

As I read the following article my memory slips back twenty four years, reliving vividly the days when the Nazis & Commies occupied Hungary. (In Orwellian double talk the world referred to it as "liberation"). In my ears ring the words of my friends who told me about the communist reoccupation of my former homeland in 1956. Now Czechoslovakia! The cruel slaughtering of defenseless people was the same each time. And so was their life afterwards, under the two totalitarian rules. ----- Did someone say the communists are mellowing? No, my friends! Nazis and Commies are alike.

August 22, 1968

Intervention in Czechoslovakia
Statement by Australian Prime Minister

Following is an excerpt from a statement on Czechoslovakia made by Mr. John G. Gorton, the Australian Prime Minister, in the Federal House of Representatives, Canberra, on August 22:

"This motion is: That the House expresses its distress at, and its abhorrence of, the armed intervention in Czechoslovakia by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the East German regime, Poland, Hungary and Bulgaria; and condemns this action as a breach of the United Nations Charter and of accepted international conduct; call for the immediate withdrawal of the forces unlawfully on Czechoslovakian territory and expresses the sympathy of the House for the people of Czechoslovakia in their ordeal.

History of Events

'...On January 5 this year Mr. Novotny, the first Secretary of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia, a Stalin-type, hard-line Communist, was replaced as First Secretary by Mr. Alexander Dubcek.

'The Communist Party and the Government of Czechoslovakia began reforms of the existing political and economic system. One of their objectives was to improve the material wellbeing of the Czechs by diverting to consumer goods those resources which had been almost entirely used for the development of heavy industry and of defense to such an extent that all that was left for the Czech people to live on were the bare necessities of life.

The second objective was to infuse some element of democracy in the previous tyrannous, totalitarian Communist system of Government which had prevailed in Czechoslovakia, and so freedom of speech was permitted and censorship of the press, of radio and of television was abolished. Real discussions began in the National Parliament. The courts were instructed to administer the law in accordance with the rule of law. The activities of the secret police were curbed and the free practice of religion was permitted. At the same time the Communist Party, under Mr. Dubcek, remained in control of the country. The Czech Government reaffirmed its friendship and alliance with the Soviet Union.

Czech forces remained committed to the Warsaw Pact and the military alliance between Russia, Czechoslovakia, and the other Warsaw Pact members remained as firm as ever. So, there was no abandonment of military union. There was no abandonment of Communist ideologies. There was merely a brave experiment seeking to give material benefit and seeking to give the right to think and speak openly and freely to Czechs. It was sought not to get rid of Communism but to keep communism and have a measure of freedom too.

This brief endeavour was soon to be crushed. Russia and the Communist regimes in Eastern Europe, who depend for their existence on Soviet military power, could not stomach the revival of freedom of speech and the revival of the rule of law. So at once a hostile press campaign against the Czech Government began. In June of this year twenty-five infantry and tank divisions ringed the frontiers of Czechoslovakia. In July tension between Czechoslovakia and Russia began to run high but it appeared to have abated following a series of meetings between Czech and Soviet leaders, ending at Bratislava on August 3.

Porfidy

In spite of what Soviet troops remained on the border and yesterday (August 21), Soviet and satellite troops launched an invasion over all the frontiers of Czechoslovakia in overwhelming strength while the Czech citizens slept.

It is worth noting at this point, as was said at the U. N. Security Council meeting, that that invasion so launched by Communist countries had obviously taken weeks of preparation. Millions of leaflets were dropped on Czechoslovakia; massive forces had been deployed; a dummy radio station and newspaper had already been set up. This surely indicates that the Soviet leaders, who embraced the Czechs at Ciorna and Bratislava and who had issued the communique I have just quoted, had already been planning all this invasion at a time when the public air was filled with smiles.

This must be taken to be a gross act of porfidy th occupation. Airborne troops had taken over Prague. Four to five hundred tanks ringed Prague, and the other centers of population were under military control. The glimmer of freedom which had begun to be seen in Czechoslovakia had gone, at least for now. The experiment was over. Because that measure of criticism, that measure of free expression of opinion, that permission of argument which the Czechs had sought to introduce into the Communist body corporate had been judged too dangerous, too poisonous for that body to imbibe and to tolerate and to live with. The invaders believed it impossible for a Communist government to survive with the consent of or even subject to any public criticism from the governed of a Communist country - surely in itself, an eloquent commentary of the Communist system as seen from within.

'As the Russian tanks rolled over the border to occupy the main centers of the country, as airborne troops dropped throughout Czechoslovakia, reports came over the Prague Government Radio. Those reports announced the invasion, announced that it was happening without the knowledge of the President of the Republic, or the Chairman of the National Assembly, the Premier or the First Secretary of the Communist Party Central Committee..

'...On the next day the Czech Embassy in London issued a statement from the Central Committee of the Czech Communist Party. This said:--
'The invasion of Czechoslovakia and the armed intervention by five States of the Warsaw Treaty were made against the will of the Government, against the will of the President of the National Assembly and other constitutional organs'.

Hitler Type Aggression

'No legal organ of the State power in Czechoslovakia had given consent to it nor had requested it.

'Then came statements from the Czech Mission to the United Nations, issued by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, transmitting a resolute protest at the Russian action and demanding the withdrawal of all armed troops forthwith. However, the troops remain. Thereabouts of Czech Government leaders are unknown..Whether or not they are safe, whether or not they live, is unknown. Faced with the need to justify an action which the world hoped it would never see again, a repetition in the same unhappy country of that aggression which Hitler committed in 1938, the Soviet Union now seeks to pretend that its troops were invited into Czechoslovakia.

'It has issued through Tass, the Soviet official newsagency, a long statement which purports to be the text of an appeal by a group of members - unnamed - of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia and of the Government. The text of the statement is signed simply and anonymously: a group of members of the Central Committee of the Communist Party..

WHO BELIEVES SOVIET CLAIM?

'Because of what I have said in recounting the history of this matter and because of the facts I have previously presented I do not believe the Russian claim. I think the Parliament and people of Australia do not believe the Russian claim and I doubt that anyone really believes the Russian claim, although it is perhaps significant that as far as we know only one Government has made a broadcast in firm support of the Russian action in Czechoslovakia - that broadcast was made over Radio Hanoi.

'What we have seen is brute military strength used to crush a military ally, an ideological partner, because some measure of free opinion had been risked.

'All that is needed to add a postscript, almost tragi-comic, to this sombre story is something that appears in a letter written by the Soviet Ambassador to the United Nations to U. Thant, the Secretary-General of that body..

'In that letter the Soviet Ambassador said, on instructions from his Government, that the Soviet Union vigorously opposed consideration of this question by the Security Council and takes this opportunity to call once again upon all States to observe strictly the principles of sovereignty and independence and of the inadmissibility of direct or indirect aggression against other states or peoples.

Perfect Example of "Double Think"

'There must be no limit to the impertinence of these people.

'This is a perfect example of what George Orwell called double-think."

Lodge Reports

Los Angeles lodge X : The National advisory Council conference will take the place of our September meeting. Regular monthly meetings will resume in October.

Closing Remarks

Dear member,

During September 19-22, a four-day meeting of our National Advisory Council will convene in Los Angeles, to work out an action oriented program to achieve a more rapid growth and National recognition of the goals and objectives of the J. S. A.

A full report of your officers and honored guests will be issued in our next West Coast report. If you wish to attend any portion of the conference, contact our office for details.

Please remember, your influence as J. S. A. members counts heavily in any constructive action we undertake. Don't let the heat of the political campaigns or the late summer sun prevent you from lending full support to our uncommon efforts. Keep distributing our literature, recruit, and send your donations!

Patriotically yours,

Georgia Gabor

J.S.A. Report

Vol II #10

"The God who gave us life gave us liberty. Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that those liberties are the gift of God?"

Jefferson

To our national membership

Although the monthly Report is quite familiar to all of you on the West Coast, most of our members will be receiving it for the first time. Thus, a few introductory remarks are in order.

Since our inception two-and-a-half years ago, some of your officers have been working very hard to create an organization to which any true American Jew could proudly belong. We started with less than fifty members and an empty treasury—we grew by strictly voluntary work and your small donations. We still have no paid professional staff, but are known and respected from coast to coast. We have completed our stage of infancy.

It was time for our officers to get together and reflect upon our progress; to evaluate our strength and weaknesses; to plan a course of action that will increase our rate of growth and our effectiveness. For this purpose, Mr. Eisenberg had called a National Advisory Council meeting. Among many other decisions, the Council members had agreed that a more frequent communication between members and officers was essential, and had therefore instructed me to convert the West Coast report to a monthly J.S.A. report, sent regularly to all our members.

I hope that you will take the time not only to read each issue, but also to drop me a line offering your comments and constructive criticism. Brief articles, book reviews, poems, "letters to the editor", reports about J.S.A. activities in your area, are all appropriate items to be published in future issues and which I am looking forward to receive from you.

Council Report

By David Eisenberg
National Advisory Council

Several of the members of the National Advisory Council of the Jewish Society of America have been concerned about a variety of happenings and non-happenings within our organization.

Therefore we took it upon ourselves to contact all the officers and members of the advisory council in order to arrange a meeting in Los Angeles, for the purpose of drawing up a constitution and to decide upon a constructive program for J.S.A. After considerable communications by letter and telephone, it was decided that the meeting in Los Angeles could and should occur. Almost all the council members were in agreement that something should be done to put J.S.A. on a more business-like basis. They were also concerned about the lack of communications within the organization as well as the lack of a national action program in which they could participate.

The meeting was held in Los Angeles on September 19-22. Several members who could not get there in person had sent their advice, and suggestions by mail. Several telephoned to add their comments to the work we were undertaking.

The majority of the criticisms were traced to be a direct result of not knowing what J.S.A. was doing, and a lack of answers to much of their correspondence to our National Headquarters. Investigation into the many problems all pointed to the fact that our officers on the East Coast were very busy putting out the new publication, "Ideas", which had kept them so busy that they had let organizational matters slide. It was decided that a better distribution of the organizational administrative load was needed. This necessitated, first, the structuring of a constitution and by-laws. This we have prepared in draft form, and along with a selection of new officers, sent on to Mike Hogan and the founding members, for their review and approval. Up to date, we have already received the approval of Joe Siegel, JSA, Chairman; Georgia Gabor, West Coast Director; Dr. Barney Finkel, JSA, Chairman of the Doctors Committee; several West Coast Lodge chairmen and active members, besides some members of J.S.A. Advisory Council. Our honorary chairman, Mr. C. Bloch, has been in communications with us on these new plans. We have also been able to get sincere cooperation and help from several rabbis.

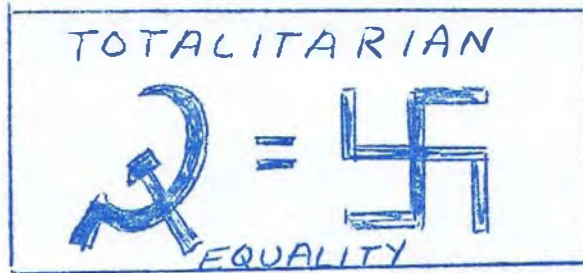

Many projects for the future have been outlined, but cannot as yet be reported on. Rest assured that what is to be accomplished is a reorganization of J.S.A. in such a manner as to satisfy the members in their desires to know what is going on, and to create important action and study programs in which each member may find some worthwhile purpose for belonging to J.S.A. There is still much work to be done. We must create an organization which will be satisfactory not only to all our members, but also appealing to future members and supporting contributors. We shall continue reporting to you our step-by-step progress.

Our sincerest wishes to all of you for a happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year.

West Coast Activities

We wish to call your attention once again, to the buttons, stickers, and hand-out sheets. We cannot afford to buy TV and radio time, nor newspaper space, to publicize our organization and promote our beliefs. Stickers and flyers serve this purpose at a fraction of the cost and are often more effective. We urge all the members to order packets ---- Display the bumper sticker on your car and ask your friends to do the same. Let's drive home the idea that Nazism = National Socialism and Communism = International Socialism; i. e. Fascists and Communists are very much alike, by no means are they on the opposite end of the political scale. Give our flyers to all your acquaintances and ask them to pass them on to their friends. They are designed to be quick reading and effective means to influence public opinion. A little effort by all of us can do a lot to swing the current trend in the right direction.

Packets cost $1.00 -- each contain one button (1½" diameter), 1 bumper sticker (black on red, 4½ X 8 inches), plus 25 assorted flyers. Order several packets -- one to keep on hand and some to give away!

Los Angeles, Lodge X_C

Our lodge had passed the following resolution and had sent it to eighty-seven representatives of the various news media:

RESOLUTION OF THE JEWISH SOCIETY OF AMERICA

Whereas, there exists in these United States today a conspicuous breakdown of law and order and a rising tide of anarchy, to the point where many law abiding citizens gravely doubt the ability and/or will of the government to protect their lives and property; and

Whereas, from the time of the Philistines through the time of the Nazis and Communists, Jewish people have learned that totalitarian governments always act to deny the people the means to defend themselves and that oppression follows disarmament; and

Whereas, many influential individuals proposed repressive gun control legislation which would only serve to increase the ratio of illegally held weapons to legal defensive arms; and

Whereas, the true solution to the criminal assault upon America lies not in disarming the law abiding citizen but rather in the prompt administration of justice to the violent, criminal minority,

It be resolved that as a necessary condition of public safety, such laws which provide severe penalties for the criminal use of firearms be vigorously upheld, and that the right of law abiding citizens to keep and bear arms for personal defense, without registration or licensing, be safeguarded from infringement.

Closing Remarks

In the name of our West Coast Officers, I wish to express our deepest gratitude to those of you who have been financially supporting our West Coast activities. Your $1, $2, and $20 donations have been enabling us to print flyers, stickers, petitions, etc. Your small donations cover the postage to send our literature to the hundreds of people like Rabbis, civic leaders, and members of the news media, who must be kept informed of the "other side of the story", the little publicized significant events.

Atheism, anti-Semitism, and anti-Americanism is spreading fast. We must counteract this trend before it is too late. I am appealing to all of you to send your dollars regularly so we can expand our activities.

Patriotically yours,

Georgie Gabor
