Dear Mr. Blumenfeld:

I am writing to see if you will write an article for us for publishing in our monthly publication Freedom Daily.

The Future of Freedom Foundation is an educational foundation whose mission is to present an uncompromising moral and philosophical case for individual freedom and limited government. With respect to education, we call for a total separation of school and state--abolition of compulsory-attendance laws, school taxes, public schools, and all governmental involvement in the educational arena.

We periodically have "theme" issues of Freedom Daily. We plan to devote an entire issue to education.

We would greatly appreciate your considering writing an article for us on the faults and failures of public schooling. If you feel comfortable with showing why total privatization is the only solution, we would also appreciate your addressing this as well. If you would like to make it a 2-part article, that would be fine with us as well.

A five-page Freedom Daily article runs between 1450 and 1500 words.

We are a very small foundation on a very tight budget. We are able to offer $250 per article ($500 for a two-parter). I realize that this is not very much money, but it is simply meant as a token of appreciation from us.

We now have over 3,000 subscribers from all over the United States and from 33 foreign countries. With many of our articles being reprinted in other publications, our uncompromising message is reaching many thousands of people. I am certain that they would benefit from your insights and analysis.

For your information, last year we reprinted your article calling for the repeal of compulsory-attendance laws.

We sure hope you give this positive consideration. It would be an honor for us if you would.

I hope to hear from you. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Jacob G. Hornberger

P.S. I am enclosing a sample of Freedom Daily for your review as well as our current promotional brochure which has endorsements on the back.

Mr. Blumenthal -
Please excuse the typeface on the letter - my good printer is in the shop. Thanks again.
