Dear Sam,

I am sorry that you have not yet been able to join us in our new Practical Homeschooling forum on America Online. But I know you had good reasons for not being able to do so.

I have taken the liberty of printing out the notes people have posted in the folder I started for you, back when you thought you would be able to join us on AOL.

Don't worry -- you don't have to answer these posts. I have archived the folder in the library, after explaining to everyone that you just weren't able to join us after all, so the users know you won't be able to answer these questions online.

I just wanted you to see how AOL "works," and to have an idea of the kinds of questions and comments you can expect in the new folder we will be happy to start for you when and if you ARE able to join us!

Yours truly,

Mary Pride
