to the days when we strolled gently through the gas down, and treated men for shock.

Yes, never again shall we enjoy the feasts in our mess the past goes, the future begins and vi have lots to look forward to besides helping the doubt that the platoon hes gained an ocean full of knowledge and experience from it's two lovely weeks in the Wild Life Reserve refuge in the Wichita Mys. It is said that we were the wild life they were preserving.

It didn't take us long to get in the swing of things out there. Some of the pup tents were plank edinstallations $\begin{aligned} & \text { Fth }\end{aligned}$ furnaces, but when it was found out that we were not going to remain until the end of the war the furnaces were abandoned.

In spite of the intense cold, no one came down with anything more serious than a sniffling case of double pneumonia.

Platoon organized, officers elected to make plans for annul.

will be notified of the date and place of the meeting.

After tow whole weeks of utter prim. ration, the fifth platoon has finally ret reed to its home base. All missions $\begin{aligned} & \text { mere sur- }\end{aligned}$ cessfully accomplish ed and it was said that no casualities occurred during the weeks of muck and mire.

The rear echelon which was under the complete supervision of our capable sgt. Spengler received a rating of super duper.

We were the pleamon which was always 15 feet apart at meal time, dug the most fox holes, and ate the least.

Tichacek claims the record for fox ho "e digging, E . s record is $12 \frac{1}{2}$ holes and 2 straddle

During the famous blitz, our clerks exhibited their bravery to the utmost. lost of them have been recommend. ed for the Hooper medal of GB.
