Dear Sam:

Saturday I took time to read your article in last week's Review Of The News, and this note is simply to let you know that I thought it was very good.

If we are not to look foolish at some later date, there are many pitfalls to be avoided in any discussion of recent events in the Middle East. I thought that you did this quite well; and that your whole Analysis laid out for our readers some facts and thoughts which were well worth their attention.

Good luck!

Sincerely,

Bob
