New York 10, N.Y.

Dear Sam:

We just returned from a much needed three-weeks vacation, roaming around the British colonies in the Caribbean and the Israeli colony in Miami.

We had seen the sad news of Bob Hunter's death in the New York Times when we were in Nassau. Needless to say, we were tremendously shocked. If ever it could have been said of anyone -- Bob Hunter was a sweet, wonderful fellow. But that's the way life is.

As you requested, I am enclosing the stock certificate properly endorsed. How's that for efficiency?

Sincerely,

Victor Lasky
